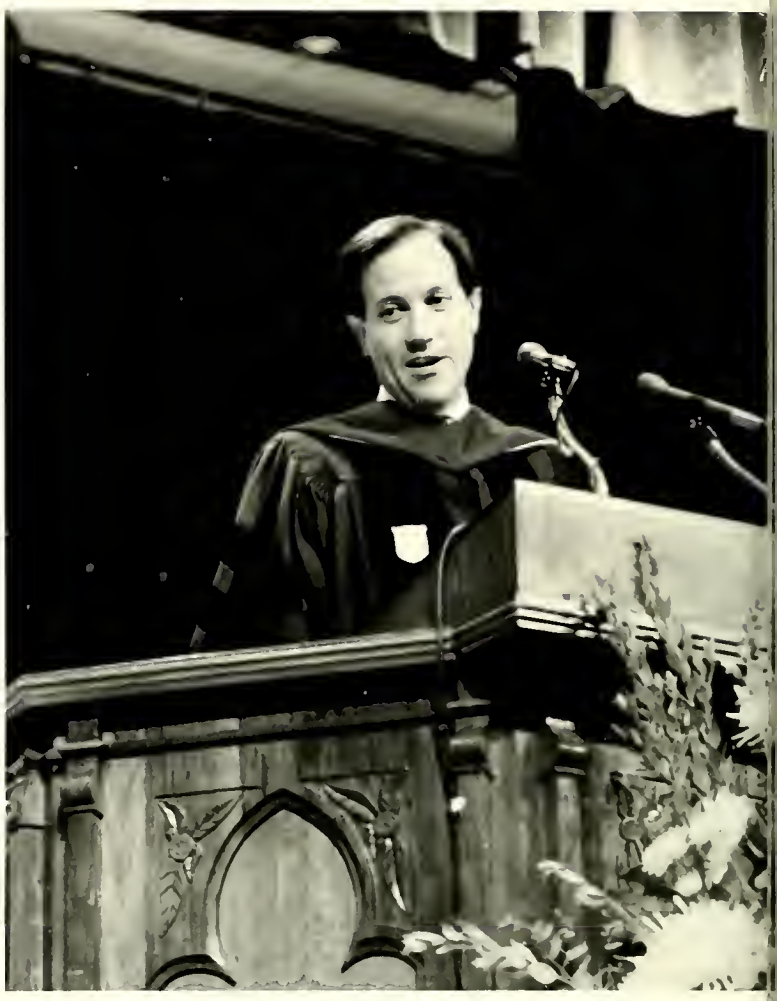
SUMMER GRADUATION, 1990



Summer graduates of Methodist College were challenged to "put down deep roots" at commencement exercises Aug. 29.

The Rev. Dr. Dennis Campbell, dean of the Duke University Divinity School, urged the degree candidates to: 1) seek that which endures in a world of change, 2) know yourself and sustain your faith, 3) never settle for shallow thinking, 4) look forward to the future; dare to risk and serve.

College President Elton Hendricks awarded 59 degrees at Methodist's 17th summer commencement. Twelve students graduated with honors.

WINTER GRADUATION 1990

Winter graduates of Methodist College were urged to reclaim the goodness and promise of America at their commencement Dec. 14.

Dr. Lloyd V. Hackley, chancellor of Fayetteville State University, said events of the last decade and a half point to a conflict in America between principles and actions. He said material wealth had ushered in an era of selfishness, permissiveness, and irresponsibility. He said American children are being neglected and abused in unprecedented numbers.

"We created unprecedented wealth for a few and unheard of deprivation for the many . . . ," he said. "During the past decade and a half, we have kept in front of our children the worst examples of sleazy behavior, from the White House to TV evangelism."

Dr. Hackley urged the 69 members of the winter class to make America whole again — "to be human beings in the Godlike sense; to be examples of excellence with compassion, decency, equity, and verity; to be the right reflection of what humanity at its best can achieve."

Dr. M. Elton Hendricks, president of Methodist College, awarded an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree to Dr. J. Allen Norris, president of Louisburg College. Dr. Norris was cited for outstanding leadership in education and in the United Methodist Church.

Dr. Hendricks presented an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree to the Reverend Helen Gray Crotwell, currently serving as Fayetteville District Superintendent for the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. Reverend Crotwell was cited for 42 years of exemplary service to the United Methodist Church.

Two special awards were given. Dr. Hendricks presented a Methodist College Medallion to Mrs. Morie Murray Howard, a retired Cumberland County business and vocational education teacher. She was cited for her contributions to public education, her community, and to Methodist College.

Barbara Ratzlaff, an August graduate, received the first annual Sam Edwards Award, signifying her selection by the faculty as the outstanding Evening College graduate of 1990. Mr. Edwards, who served as Methodist's first registrar and director of admissions, presented the award to Mrs. Ratzlaff.

SPRING GRADUATION 1991

"Learn why this country is free and become a part of the system that keeps it free."

That was the challenge given to 103 Methodist College seniors at their commencement May 5. The speaker was Seventh District Congressman Charlie Rose of Fayetteville.

In his commencement address, Mr. Rose described freedom as "our most precious commodity" and warned the graduating seniors that "freedom leaves us in subtle ways."

The congressman urged members of the Class of 1991 to resist attempts to control the public mind, to safeguard the freedoms guaranteed in the Bill of Rights, and to get involved in government and politics at the grass roots level. "You are doomed to live under the rule of weak-minded people if you leave government to the weak-minded," he said.

Three persons received special honors at the college's 28th spring commencement.

College President Elton Hendricks presented a Methodist College Medallion to Mrs. Ruth H. Palmer of Kitty Hawk, NC, recognizing her generous support of Methodist College and her local church.

The Reverend Bill Presnell, a 1971 graduate of Methodist College, received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. He was cited for 20 years of exemplary service to the United Methodist Church and his fellow citizens.

Dr. Richard Pearce of DeLand, FL, who served as president of Methodist College from 1973-83, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree. He was cited for his "guidance of Methodist College in difficult days, committed service to the United Methodist Church, and gifted classroom presence."

Kelli Sapp, a biology major from Atlanta, GA, received the Lucius Stacy Weaver Award given in honor of the college's first president. Ms. Sapp graduated first in the May class, with a 3.89 grade point average.

Mrs. Jianjin Yang, a native of the Peoples Republic of China, presented her nation's flag to the college, continuing a tradition for international students begun in May 1985.

Five ROTC cadets took the Oath of Allegiance and were commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army. They were: Cynthia Christine Anderson, Patrick L. Beatty, Robert Ladale Guilford, Roy Harrell, and Curtis Lee Taylor, Sr.

1990 FOOTBALL SEASON

The 1990 football season was the second campaign of the short Monarch gridiron history. The team was much more competitive than the first year but still could not manage that elusive first NCAA Division III win.

The defense was anchored on the line by Rick Fouts and captain Tim Eshelman. James Brown led the secondary with six interceptions and was named team MVP.

The young Monarch offense was captained by Robby Barnhill. Chris Gillen performed admirably as a freshman running back and Mike Holloman was the Monarch's leading receiver.

MEN'S SOCCER

The men's soccer team achieved a few milestones for the Methodist program in 1990. With the most wins ever in a season, their 15-3-1 record captured the schools second consecutive Dixie Conference title. This marked the first time that the conference title had been won with a perfect 5-0 record while not conceding a single goal.

Their No. 1 regional ranking and No. 6 national ranking were the highest ever for a Methodist men's soccer team, and enabled them to secure their first ever NCAA tournament bid. An 11-game winning streak, which ended in the Southern Regional final, made the 1990 campaign the finest ever.

Individual honors included seven Monarch players being named All-Conference, five being named All-South and one being named All-American.

All-Conference Recipients, First Team: Lance Watkins, David Holmes, Finbarr Clancy, Jimmy Maher, Jay Haley; Second Team: Justin Carey, Michael Manchester. The team advanced to the NCAA final four for the third year in a row.

Several individuals on this year's team were recognized for their outstanding performance. Anne Thorpe, Tricia Criswell, Catherine Byrne and Collette Gilligan received All-American, All-Region, and All-Conference awards. Traci Wilson and Beth Berg were also named All-Region and All-Conference.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The 1991 season began with a lot of promises as the team won the Methodist College/ Firestone Invitational Tournament to open the season. A five-week layoff over the Christmas break followed by injuries to several key players led to a 8-18 record for the year. James Wear and Erick Hunt led the team in scoring and Randy Martin led the team in rebounding. James Wear was selected second team All-Conference and Randy Martin was selected as MVP for the 1990-91 season. With a good nucleus of returning players and the addition of some very good new players, Coach Lawrence is optimistic next year's team will be much more successful.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The 1990-91 women's basketball season was the most successful one in a decade as the Lady Monarchs finished the season with 12-10. Three of the losses were by one point and two were by three points, so a lucky break here or there could have meant a fantastic season. Spurred by the play of several freshmen and the leadership and solid contribution of the veterans, the team bolted to a 6-1 early season start, suffered a mid-season letdown, then rallied down the stretch to make the conference race interesting. Sophomores Daphne Akridge and Anne Uleman were named DIAC All-Conference second team. Freshman Angie Garner led the team in rebounding. The team motto was "Roarin' into the '90's" and it appears to bode well for the resurgence of Methodist College women's basketball.

VOLLEYBALL

The Methodist College Volleyball Team had quite a challenge in the Fall of 1990. Under first year coach Karen Smith, the Monarchs were young (5 freshmen, 2 juniors) and inexperienced (1 returner of the 7 team members). The team continually improved throughout the season but was hampered by injuries and the small numbers. At times, the Lady Monarchs traveled to matches with just six players.

The highlight of the season was the Galludet Tournament weekend where Methodist defeated Christopher Newport twice and played regionally ranked Galludet well. "The future of Methodist volleyball could be seen that weekend. The potential of these young players was truly evident then," commented Coach Karen Smith.

Lorie Sanuita was selected to the 2nd Team All-Conference squad. Methodist finished the season with a 9-10 record.

TRACK AND CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country season was highlighted by the success of the young running Monarch team. Led by Ben Sentz, the Monarchs finished 4th at the Mason Dixon Conference Meet, with Ben Sentz and Darrin Ganyard earning All-Conference awards.

Ben also earned All-South award at the NCAA Regional Meet by placing 7th. He made a very gallant effort in attempting to qualify but came up just 8 seconds short of that accomplishment. The future looks very promising for the running Monarchs with the experience gained this year.

The Monarch track squad faced a very challenging schedule and as a result struggled early in the season. As the team and its members matured and gained confidence, the results began to show. The season concluded with a rainy meet at the University of South Carolina. Each of the Monarchs ran a personal best performance.

The indoor conference award winners were: Joe Castner, 400M dash and mile relay; Matt Melvin, mile relay; Jason Fink, mile relay; Jim McKee, mile relay. New marks in outdoor track included: Brett Dietrich, 3,000M steeplechase, 10:05.6; Joe Castner, 400M dash, 50.1; Matt Melvin, 400M hurdles, 57.6; Darrin Ganyard, 5,000M run, 15:45.1.

MEN'S GOLF

The 1990-91 men's golf team successfully defended its NCAA Division III National Championship. The team also won the Dixie Conference for the third straight year, the Aubrey Apple Invitational for the second consecutive year and the first annual Gordin Collegiate in Myrtle Beach, SC.

The Monarch golfers had four All-Americans (Pilewski, Klein, Cherry, Arliss), three All-District players (Pilewski, Klein, Arliss), three All-Conference players (Klein, Cherry, Anderson) and one Academic All-American (Jason Cherry).

The gold team faces a tremendous challenge next year as members try for a "three-peat" at the national tournament. "I feel that the win at nationals this year was twice as sweet as last year's because we defended our title," said Coach Steve Conley. "And it is much harder the second time around."

Conley also added, "We'll just try to reload for next year and do what we have done the last two years, because it works."

Greer was named MVP for her 79.8 season stroke average for 22 competitive rounds. Allyson was invited to participate in the NCAA at Ohio State's Scarlet Course.

Juniors Rindy Garner and Denise Woodard were elected co-captains and both joined Allyson Greer in being named to the All-American squad.

The Lady Monarchs return seven golfers and are expected to be improved by a strong recruiting class.

Coach Ann Davidson is pleased with her team's season and optimistic about the future prospects for the Lady Monarchs.

The Methodist College softball team successfully defended its 1990 DIAC Tournament title and attained co-champion regular season honors as well. First-year Coach Karen Smith was very pleased and proud of her team's accomplishments.

The Lady Monarchs were led on the mound by Patti Britcher, who received the MVP Tournament Honor as well as 1st Team All-Conference. Third baseman Cathy Peloquin, catcher Lorie Sanuita, and shortstop Lynder Smith also made both the All Conference and All-Tournament teams.

Donna Sims, Becky Younger and Melissa Furr made the 1st Team All-Conference Team. Second baseman Ann Uleman was selected by her team as MVP, while Coach Smith received the DIAC Coach of the Year Honors.

The regular season championship was the first for the softball team since 1985. The overall record was 25-13, 10-1 in the DIAC. The team had a Central Regional season ranking of 5th.

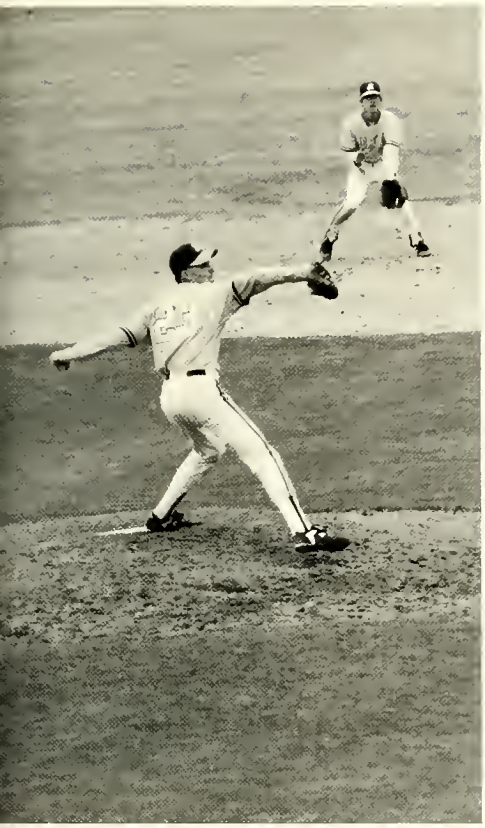
BASEBALL



The '91 baseball season culminated with the Monarchs' third trip to the NCAA Division III College World Series in the last six years.

Methodist first won the NCAA South Regional held at N.C. Wesleyan. In that tournament the Monarchs defeated Mary Washington 6-5 and host N.C. Wesleyan 13-2 and 7-2 sandwiched around an 8-5 loss.

Rain pushed the tournament right to the last possible day, which caused the Methodist team to travel back to Fayetteville and leave for Battle Creek, Michigan seven hours later.

A tired bunch opened the World Series with a 4-3 loss to Cal. State University at San Bernardino. With a little rest the Monarchs bounced back to defeat Simpson (Iowa) 13-2, then eliminated CSU-San Bernardino 8-7. The Monarchs were bounced out by the eventual national champions Southern Maine 12-3 wrap up a 4th place finish in the College World Series.

The Monarchs finished the regular season one half game out of first in the Dixie Conference, yet won the most games in the conference. Regular season wins over nationally ranked teams such as Claremont (CA) College, North Adams State, Mary Washington, N.C. Wesleyan, Ferrum and St. Andrews assured the Monarchs of their tenth consecutive NCAA Tournament invitation.

The Monarchs were led by co-captains Jay Kirkpatrick (.409) and Scott McQueen (.286). Others having outstanding seasons were: Joe Myrtle (.373), Brandon Bridgers (.348) and Tom Sports (.325). The pitching staff was led by Ric Brown (10-4), Matt Boucher (9-1), and Mike Rohr (5-4) and Pat Fachet (3-3).

Several Monarchs received post season honors. All Americans were Jay Kirkpatrick, 1st Team; Ric Brown, 2nd Team; Joe Myrtle, 3rd Team. Jay Kirkpatrick was Academic All American, 1st Team. All South were Jay Kirkpatrick, 1st Team; Joe Myrtle, 1st Team; Ric Brown, 1st Team; Brandon Bridgers, 2nd Team; Matt Boucher, 2nd Team; Scott McQueen, Honorable Mention.

Jay Kirkpatrick was named Player of the Year in the Dixie Conference, Most Valuable Player in the South Regional, and a member of the World Series All Tournament Team. He was drafted in the 30th round by the L.A. Dodgers and was assigned to a farm team in Great Falls, Montana.

MONARCH CHEERLEADING

The 1990-91 Monarch Cheerleading team saw a season of rebuilding. Under the direction of first-year coach Greg Rumsey, the team strived to increase its numbers while they improved their ability. It was a season that consisted of long practices and hard work. The hard work paid off in the end, though, when the team was ranked as the seventh best cheerleading team in the nation in Division II by Universal Cheerleaders Association. The experience gained by team members this year, combined with the talent of some fine recruits, should make next season very successful.

IRAQI PRESIDENT SADDAM HUSSEIN

The portrait of Saddam Hussein shows a man with a strange duality: tough, yet fearful; inspiring fear in his own people yet also basking in a kind of populist veneration from many of the region's Arabs.

The portrait is one of a poor orphan who rose to power through opportunism and brutality, whose anti-Western views were shaped in childhood, and who not — commanding the world's fourth-largest army — is trying to deliver on his nationalist dreams.

Fear and terror surround the 53-year-old Iraqi President, and U.S. intelligence officials and other analysts believe that this climate could be his undoing.

U.S. TANKS REACH SAUDI ARABIA

The U.S. Army's heaviest ground firepower reached Saudi soil in August for deployment behind Arab forces manning the front line in the standoff with Iraq.

Dozens of M1-1P tanks and M2 Bradley armored infantry fighting vehicles, and scores more heavy support vehicles, rolled off two huge transport ships at a port in northeastern Saudi Arabia and made their way north into the desert.

"There's no doubt in my mind that we'll succeed here if we have to," said Col. Barry Willey. "Bring them (the Iraqis) on," said a U.S. sergeant. "We have the training and technology; they've got the numbers. We'll take them out."

U.S. TROOPS LEAVE FOR MIDDLE EAST

As of mid-October (1990), more than 200,000 U.S. troops had been deployed to Saudi Arabia, Pentagon sources said. They are preparing to defend the desert kingdom from a possible Iraqi attack.

Iraq has about 430,000 men in Kuwait and southern Iraq, according to the Pentagon.

Among the latest forces to arrive in Saudi Arabia are elements of the 1st Cavalry Division, which includes a brigade of the 2nd Armored Division, from Fort Hood, TX. The soldiers are being flown on commercial jetliners, meeting up with their roughly 300 M1-Abrams tanks and other equipment which was shipped from their bases several weeks prior.

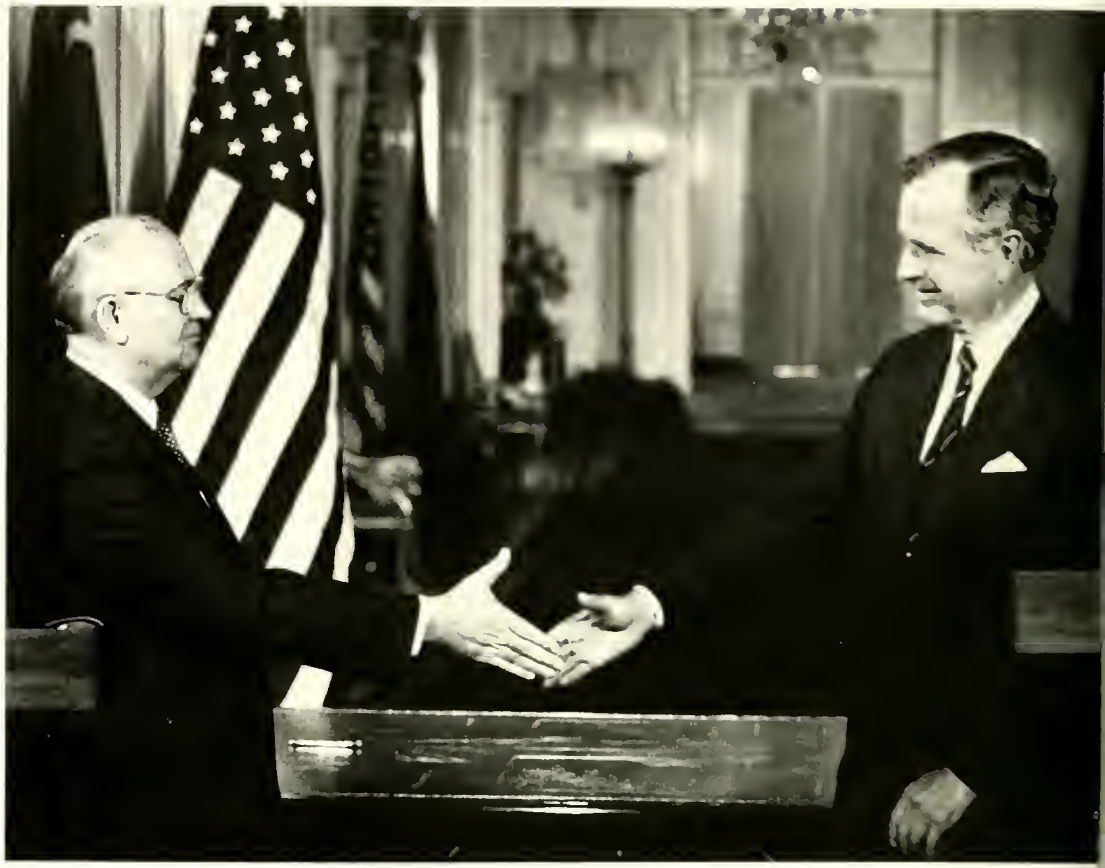
BUSH AND GORBACHEV SUMMIT AGREEMENTS

Celebrating the fruits of their summit diplomacy, President Bush and Soviet President Mikhail S. Gorbachev shook hands and signed a sheaf of agreements, including a conditional trade accord. During the June (1990) summit, the leaders also embraced a preliminary deal to cut long-range nuclear arms.

The centerpiece arms agreement, banning chemical arms production, was a foregone conclusion. But last-hour negotiating was necessary to settle differences on a framework for strategic arms cuts and a five-year grain deal.

The two leaders also agreed to strive for an elusive agreement on reduction of troops, tanks, and other conventional weapons in Europe.

From twin lecterns, the two presidents spoke of what they had done and what they hope to do. "I think what is happening now . . . represents an event of momentous importance, not only for our two countries but for the world," said Gorbachev.



GERMAN REUNIFICATION

World leaders welcomed a united Germany into the international community on October 3, 1990, but concerns about the balance of power tempered some European enthusiasm.

"A new era is beginning for Germany, for Europe and indeed, we hope, for the world," Secretary of State James A. Baker III declared in New York.

In a message to governments worldwide, Chancellor Helmut Kohl pledged that Germany would never again pose the territorial claims that marked Germany from its initial unification in 1871 to its defeat and division in World War II. "In the future, only peace will emanate from German soil," Kohl said.

His message came after Germany held a nightlong nationwide celebration with fireworks and music.

The nation united at the stroke of midnight when a giant German flag was raised in front of the battle-scarred Reichstag building in Berlin. Kohl and other leaders joined in signing the national anthem.

The unification came 11 months after the Berlin Wall fell in a peaceful revolt that cast aside Communist East German overlords.

NELSON MANDELA WORLD TOUR

Massive crowds turned out for African National Congress leader Nelson Mandela at every stop on his six-week tour of three continents. Mandela visited 14 nations in Europe, North America, and Africa, achieving his goals: urging foreign governments to maintain sanctions against South Africa, raising funds for the ANC and explaining the goals of his movement.

The ANC says it aims to create a non-racial democracy and to distribute the nation's wealth more equally. Mandela, the ANC's deputy president, has said he favors a mixed economy.

Nelson Mandela, one of the world's most celebrated political prisoners, was freed by the South African government in February after 27 years in prison. He was serving a life sentence for allegedly plotting sabotage to overthrow the white government.

FREE ELECTIONS IN ROMANIA

Excited Romanians voted May 20 (1990) in their first free elections in 53 years. Interim President Ion Iliescu won in a landslide victory, but the two opposition candidates alleged numerous instances of election fraud.

Iliescu had been heavily favored to win the presidency. His Front, a loose grouping of former Communists, workers, and technocrats that has dominated government since December's revolution, also led in the parliamentary vote.

The main issues of the campaign included moving Romania's centralized socialist system to a free-market economy and dismantling the Communist system.

CHAMORRO VICTORY

Violeta Barrios de Chamorro, publishers of Nicaragua's opposition newspaper, led a 14-part coalition to victory over Sandinista rule despite political inexperience.

"The Nicaraguan people have shown that they want to live in democracy, in peace, and in freedom," Mrs. Chamorro told more than 1,000 cheering supporters at her election headquarters on February 26, 1990.

The general election was monitored by more than 3,000 international observers including the United Nations, the Organization of American States and a delegation led by former U.S. President Jimmy Carter. They all pronounced the voting free and fair and the count clean.

DAVID SOUTER JOINS SUPREME COURT

David H. Souter, a mild-mannered, well-read and previously little-known judge from New Hampshire, became history's 105th Supreme Court justice in October (1990) after pledging to "do equal right to the poor and to the rich."

In a brief ceremony in the crowded courtroom, Souter, 51, was administered the judicial oath of office by Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist and almost immediately got to work hearing high court arguments with his eight new colleagues.

Souter joins the court at a pivotal time in its history.

EARTH DAY

On April 22, an estimated 200 million people all over the planet celebrated the 20th anniversary of Earth Day as activists pleaded for the rise of a new "conservation generation" to care for the fragile environment.

In Washington, Earth Day founder Gaylord Nelson urged more than 100,000 people massed at the foot of the Capitol to work to motivate politicians and corporate leaders to environmental action.

"I don't want to come back here 20 years from now and have to tell your sons and daughters that you didn't do your duty," said Nelson, 74, who originated Earth Day when he was a Senator from Wisconsin. "We've got to raise a conservation generation."

Earth Day was celebrated in more than 3,600 U.S. communities and in 140 other nations, according to organizers.

SOUTHERN FLOODS

The Southern U.S. spent much of the Spring wringing itself out after weeks of flooding turned entire towns into muddy lakes where buildings poked up like knotty tree stumps, and the toll of shattered lives was tremendous.

While parts of the Mid-West dealt with heavy rainfall and floods, those states suffering the most damage were Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi.

In Texas alone, agricultural damage was estimated at $700 million and at least $60 million to residences.

HOMELESS COUNT

A legion of clipboard-toting counters sought out shelters, subways and steam grates on March (1990) in the broadest attempt ever to find out the extent of homelessness since it became a national disgrace in the 1980s.

Some homeless didn't mind the government intrusion. "It shows that they are starting to recognize us as humans and not the scum of the earth," said one young man of the streets.

Another homeless man said, "What are they going to use the numbers for anyway? To tell us there ain't no homeless problem? I'm a living example that there is a problem. We need jobs, not surveys."

The U.S. Census Bureau is spending $2.7 million to tally homeless Americans but critics fear an undercount will allow the government to justify cuts in services.

The homeless — now estimated to number 250,000 to 3 million — were asked their name, age, sex, race, and martial status.

As Washington, D.C.'s deputy mayor for economic development said, the count is important because "only when we know how many homeless there are can improvements be made in the delivery of services."

FLAG PROTECTION ACT

The U.S. Senate rejected a constitutional amendment against flag burning on June 26 with critics arguing that it was already dead and being debated largely as ammunition for use against them at election time.

The Senate voted 58-42 in favor, leaving it nine short of the required two-thirds majority needed to approve amendments.

President Bush called for approval of the measure, which said simply that "Congress and the states shall have power to prohibit the physical desecration of the flag of the United States."

But the House rejected it with Democratic leaders saying that it amounted to placing limits on freedom of speech. And Speaker Thomas Foley said lawmakers would not get a chance to reconsider this year.

EARTHQUAKE IN THE PHILIPPINES

A major earthquake jolted Manila and surrounding Luzon island on July 16, killing at last 193 people and leaving hundreds more trapped in collapsed buildings.

Most of the victims in Baguio, about 50, were at the Hyatt Hotel. The entire front section of the Hyatt, the city's plushest hotel, collapsed.

It appeared that floors containing guest rooms had crashed down onto the lobby, which includes the main restaurant, bar, and shops.

Aftershocks continued the following day, forcing many residents to sleep on the streets after the quake, which measured 7.7 on the Richter scale.

WORLD CUP SOCCER

German fans chanted and sang and screamed their pleasure on July 8 (1990) when West Germany dethroned Argentina and won the World Cup.

"Deutschland ist Weltmeister (Germany is world champion)," was the prevalent scream among fans packed into Rome's Olympic Stadium as a match that had grown ugly with fouls in the second half finally ended.

Th Argentines took the loss as well as could be expected, shaking hands with many German youths at the stadium.

Many Germans headed into central Rome to celebrate the victory that came after the frustration of losses in the previous two World Cup finals, to Italy in 1982 and Argentina in 1986.

CINCINNATI REDS WIN WORLD SERIES

The Cincinnati Reds, given no chance to beat the Oakland Athletics, needed only four quick games to win the World Series in one of the biggest upsets in baseball history.

The Reds completed their improbable sweep on October 20 (1990) in spite of losing two star players, Eric Davis and Billy Hatcher, to injuries. Cincinnati relied on Jose Rijo and rallied for two runs in the eighth inning to win 2-I and that was it.

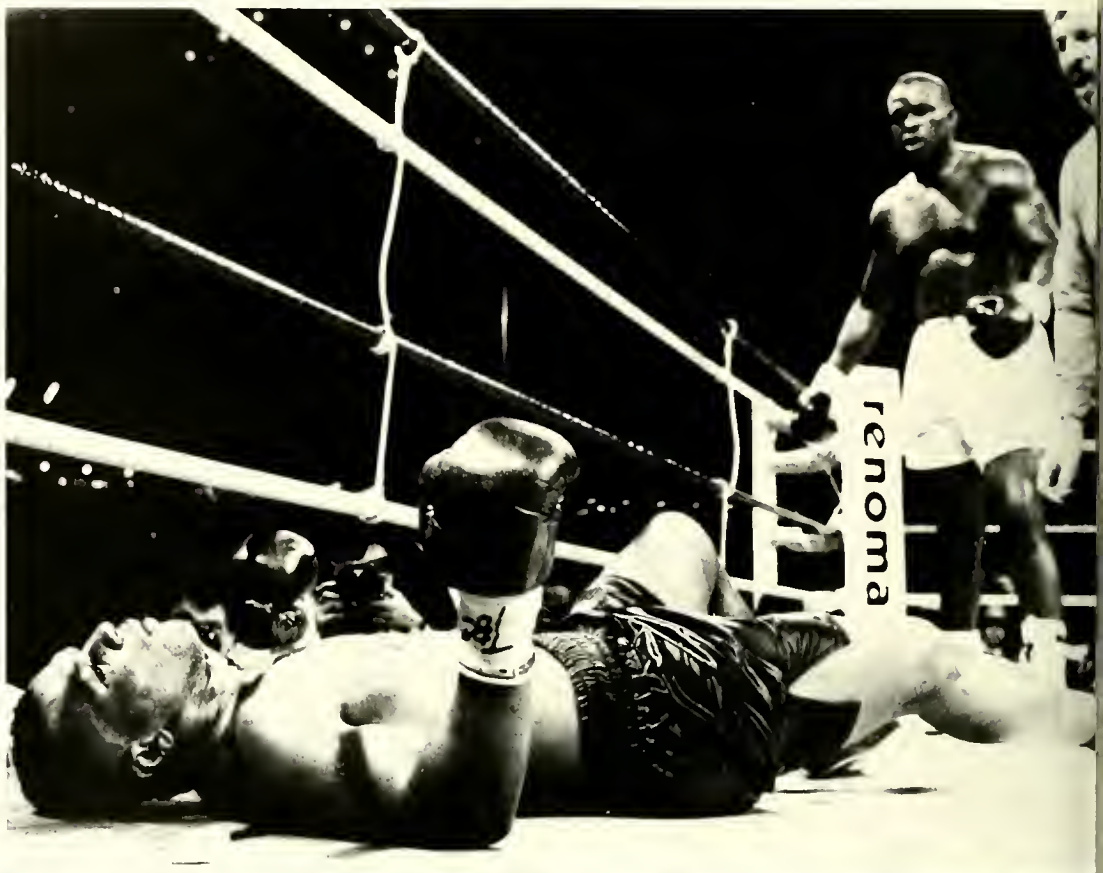
The Athletics' third straight trip to the World Series ended with yet another disappointment. In 1988, they lost to Los Angeles, last year's championship overshadowed by an earthquake and this season, the Reds.

DOUGLAS IS WORLD HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMP

James "Buster" Douglas wore a world heavyweight championship belt after his stunning knockout of Mike Tyson in Tokyo earlier this year. At 1:23 of the 10th round, Douglas knocked Tyson out with a five-punch combination.

The Title was in limbo during three days of bickering over the long count. Two of boxing's governing bodies undertook an investigation of whether Douglas, the underdog, was knocked out first. The final decision was in his favor.

"He pulled the greatest upset in history," said Douglas' father. "Just call it a victory for the small man," Tyson said.



NOLAN RYAN WINS 300

Defeating the Milwaukee Brewers on July 31, Texas Rangers pitcher Nolan Ryan won his 300th game. "I feel more relieved than anything else after all the buildup," Ryan said after joining the 300 Club.

A crowd of 51,533 showed up to cheer Ryan on at County Stadium. "A lot of people have come in for this game. It's inconvenient for them, but they're friends of mine and they want to be a part of it," he said before the game.

Ryan has become one of ten major league pitchers to win 300 games.

ROSEANNE BARR SINGS THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

It was crude, even lewd. But this time fans were spared seeing where she's tattooed.

Still, many people said that Roseanne Barr was a disgrace for her shrill rendition of the national anthem at a National League baseball double header and a crude on-field gesture afterward.

But others said simply: Lighten up.

They maintained the comedian who stars on the popular sitcom "Roseanne" did the best she could or may have become confused by the sound system's delay and resorted to shtick.

Barr's behavior should not have come as a surprise. During a World Series game in Oakland last fall, Roseanne bared her derriere, revealing a tattoo declaring "Tom" — her husband, Tom Arnold.

Barr was troubled by the criticism. "She's very sorry. She's very upset that people think she meant disrespect. We weren't trying to disrespect that song at all," Arnold said.

MADONNA

Madonna kicked off her 1990 world tour, "Blonde Ambition," with a seven-concert tour of Japan beginning in April, then came back to perform in the U.S. and on to more shows in Europe.

In each of her two-hour performances, the singer ran through a series of accent and costume changes, reinventing herself with each change.

"Express Yourself" is just what Madonna does. Although her performance is "Causing a Commotion," the "Blonde Ambition" tour is nothing less than a satisfying show.

Editor's Note

The task of being editor of the Carillon has been a great one but I would like to thank those who have made this job ever so much easier. To Maureen Deery I owe a very special thanks for her help in keeping everything organized and under control throughout the entire year. To Bill Billings I am grateful for all the photographs and time spent above and beyond anything required simply by his job. Above all I thank both of my wonderful parents for their support and encouragement not only with the yearbook but in everything I do. It has been an honor to hold this position for two consecutive years and I hope that this book once again reflects positively on the college as a whole.
